Luxury getaways are all about relaxation, beautiful scenery and getting away from the daily routine. Check into one of these stylish inns and resorts where you can relax with massages, lounge in the sun next to the pool and play a few rounds of golf. The properties that made our list are famous for their five star service and fabulous accommodations. All have excellent restaurants where you can celebrate a special occasion, plan a romantic proposal and sample new flavors.

2. InterContinental Washington D.C. - The Wharf

InterContinental Washington D.C. - The Wharf is a modern glass-fronted upscale hotel located in the lively Washington D.C. Wharf neighborhood, along the mile-long pier on the Potomac River. It is surrounded by excellent restaurants, shops, and endless activities and is only 2 miles from the White House and a mile from the National Mall, monuments, and museums. The hotel's rooms and suites are modern and sleek with soft colors and have all the latest amenities such as smart TVs, Nespresso machines, minibars, and Wi-Fi. Some rooms have wonderful views of the river and the city.

Suites have Bose sound systems, living rooms, and Juliette balconies. A two-story suite has a large wrap-around balcony. The guests enjoy a spa, a rooftop swimming pool, a gym, and an elegant art deco-style restaurant.
